

Saturday, October 14, 2017 Schedule of Events
The Slave Dwelling Project Comes to Dorchester

9 a.m. – 2 p.m. Tour of Dorchester African American Historical Sites

(ONLINE pre-registration for tour required, $10 per person by calling 410-228-7953).

Organized by the HTO, Bill Jarman Tour Guide

Location: Begins at Harriet Tubman UGRR Visitors Center, Tour of county historic site, including Handsell for presentations, discussions. Returns to HTSP for a Visitors Center Tour.

Following events to be held at Handsell Historic Site, 4837 Indiantown Road, Vienna MD 21869. All events are free and open to the public.

10 a.m. – 5 p.m. Continuous All-Day:

- Food and Beverage available for purchase by Two Chicks Catering.
- "Inalienable Rights" Troupe of living history storytellers of life as an enslaved person.
- Cooking demonstrations in Handsell Kitchen by Jerome Bias of "Inalienable Rights", Handsell Kitchen (basement-enter rear of house)
- Roberta Perkins as the Handsell "Laundress", Handsell lawn.
- "Ned Hector", African American Revolutionary War soldier and freeman, Handsell lawn.
- "Francis Watkins Harper, 19th century author, poet and abolitionist, Handsell Parlor (11 a.m. – 3 p.m.)
- History of Handsell House, Living History docents on site in period dress
- Showing of "Voices of Indiantown", every hour on the hour, Handsell Pantry Theatre (basement)

In the Chicone Village:

- Pocomoke Indian Nation in the longhouse and work shelter
- Philip Goldsborough, Native traditions
- Lenni Lenape-Maneto of New Jersey "Fry Bread" for purchase and other exhibits

Living "History Tent" Presentations Schedule:

- 10:30 a.m. "Storytelling of an Enslaved Woman" and Joseph McGill of the Slave Dwelling Project
- 11:15-12 noon "Coming to the Table" Morning Presentation and Discussions
- 12:00 p.m. Voices of Indiantown" – Remembering the Enslaved Community of Handsell
 Members of the Pinder and Jackson Families and NHPA Board Members
- 12:30 p.m. Negro Spirituals by the Sombarkin Trio, Karen Somerville, Lester Barrett, Jr., and
 Jerome McKinney
- 1:15 p.m. "Why We Sleep Tight" and Inalienable Rights Storytellers
 Joseph McGill of the Slave Dwelling Project
- 2:00 - 2:45 p.m. Negro Spirituals by Sombarkin Trio
- 3:00 p.m. Dr. Clara Small "Enslaved People of Dorchester Serving in the Civil War"
- 3:30 p.m. "Coming to the Table" Afternoon Discussion

