

Saturday, October 14, 2017 Schedule of Events
The Slave Dwelling Project Comes to Dorchester

9 a.m. – 2 p.m. Tour of Dorchester African American Historical Sites

(ONLINE pre-registration for tour required, $10 per person by calling 410-228-7953).

Organized by the HTO, Bill Jarman Tour Guide

Location: Park, Begins at HTSP, Tours county historic site, goes to Handsell for Discussions and visits and returns to HTSP for a Park Tour.

Following events to be held at Handsell Historic Site, 4837 Indiantown Road, Vienna MD 21869. All events are free and open to the public.

10 a.m. – 5 p.m. Continuous All-Day:

- Food and Beverage available for purchase by Two Chicks Catering.
- Cooking demonstrations in Handsell Kitchen by Jerome Bias of “Inalienable Rights”
- Roberta Perkins as the Handsell “Laundress”
- “Inalienable Rights” Troupe of 7 living history storytellers of life as an enslaved person.
- “Ned Hector”, African American Revolutionary War soldier and freeman.
- “Francis Watkins Harper, 19th century author, poet and abolitionist, Handsell Parlor (11 a.m. – 3 p.m.)
- Pocomoke Indian Nation at the Chicone Village with Philip Goldsborough
- Lenni Lenape of New Jersey “Fry Bread” and other exhibits
- Tours and History of Handsell House

Living “History Tent” Presentations Schedule:

10:00 a.m.	Storytelling of an Enslaved Woman and Joseph McGill of the Slave Dwelling Project
10:30 a.m.	Negro Spirituals by Karen Somerville and the Sombarkin Trio
11:15-12 noon	“Coming to the Table” Morning Presentation and Discussions Under the “Heritage Tent”
12:00 p.m.	Dr. Clara Small and Teresa Neild, “Enslaved People of Dorchester Serving in the Civil War”
12:30 p.m.	Voices of Indiantown – Families who grew up near Handsell.
1:00 p.m.	Joseph McGill of the Slave Dwelling Project “ Why We Sleep Tight ” and Inalienable Rights Storytellers
2:00 - 2:45 p.m.	Negro Spirituals by Karen Somerville and the Sombarkin Trio
3:00 p.m.	“Coming to the Table” Afternoon Discussions